

Testimonials

"I had the pleasure of meeting with David and allowing myself to once and for all ask for help in regards to a serious family struggle between siblings and unresolved issue over a family will. David helped me remember that my good was not dependent upon this one thing but a part of something far greater, something unlimited. When I finally set the burden down and gave up how it had to unfold, a miraculous wave of communication happened and everyone involved felt a win."

— Marilyn, New York

"Thank you for listening, period! The fact that you shared your own vulnerability made me realize that I am not alone. You have a level of purity and clarity that is palpable and true."

— Mark, California

David Ault is a licensed minister through Religious Science International and a nationally known speaker, author and motivator. With compassion, and a highly intuitive, inner knowing, David can assist you to gain a clearer understanding as to the behavioral choices that keep us from experiencing our greater good. We all have challenges, but those challenges can either suffocate us or become motivators, unexpected gifts in reacquainting ourselves to our unlimited potential and power. With many clients across the country, David has used his skills to help many find their way back to the true essence of who they are.

Counseling/Spiritual Affirmative Prayer

- Can help alleviate emotional pain and suffering.
- It can teach you new skills with which you can successfully deal with the problems at hand.
- It can save a marriage.
- It can help increase your self esteem.
- It can do all these things and more.

The only thing it can't do is change you.

That empowering process is up to you and your willingness to do the work.

Remember, working with Spiritual Principle is like harnessing electricity. The current is always available, but it does not light your lamp until you plug the cord in and flip on the switch.

You have to take the skills or new ideas and put them into practice in your life.

I often tell my clients that unless they take what they learn and put it into practice out in the world, little will change.

Are you ready?

"How can I thank you for your time wisdom and beautiful energy? The effect will be everlasting. I can feel the changes occurring by the hour. Your words and suggestions fit so very perfectly with what had been leading up to that moment. I have heard so many words and used them myself before, yet when you said them, it was as if my very cells heard and felt them."

— Andrea, New Jersey

"I have been praying for such a long time for a way to heal my issues around abandonment. You not only helped me honor my feelings and put an end to my critical inner voice but paved the way for me to discover a new voice, new words that have given me sustaining grace."

— C J, Texas
